

GRUNDSTEIN GLOBAL

Member Role: Legal Advisor

About Grundstein Global

Grundstein Global is a community, and your personal network, of highly motivated and talented students. The community is shaped and run by its members.

Our mission is to create a community for ambitious, talented and globally minded individuals who can inspire one another to excel in their chosen career paths and build lifelong relationships.

Why Join Us?

The environment of a person profoundly shapes the path they take. More importantly, the people one spends time and works with heavily influence one's entire life. By joining Grundstein, you will be surrounded by eager and talented people from different fields. This will influence your ideas, the way you work, the possibilities you have.

Grundstein does not only connect you with successful people. It also drives you to be more successful.

Primary Role Description

We are establishing a small legal team to support the growth of Grundstein Global. At Grundstein Global, you will work directly and very closely with the business teams, providing day-to-day advice to the management board and other various teams. We are looking for a team member with broad legal skills and a strong interest in all legal questions related to data privacy and data protection and incorporation.

The member's responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

1. You will be responsible for contract negotiations (e.g. cooperation contracts, contracts on Software as a Service and IT contracts,) and you will represent the interests of Grundstein Global vis-a-vis business partners, state authorities and in legislative procedures.
2. You are in charge of the incorporation of Grundstein Global
3. Proactively aim to develop strategic models and strive to avoid legal risks for Grundstein Global
4. You will be responsible for the conception, continuous review, evaluation and enhancement of all data related documents and questions e.g. data protection concepts, data protection declaration, data protection-relevant contracts and contractual clauses
5. You will develop and carry out data protection trainings for the Grundstein Global teams
6. You will mandate and liaise with external law firms for additional support if needed

Wider Responsibilities

As a member of Grundstein Global, you are expected to support the running and development of the community through accepting and creating tasks/projects related to your area(s) of expertise, or an area you are interested in.
